

CARPENTRY

Step ahead!

Get the skills and experience that will put you a step ahead, be it in college or a rewarding career.

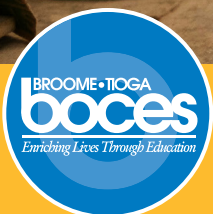

Gain real-world experience constructing a Habitat for Humanity home

Study carpentry methods and materials

Learn construction safety and estimating

"Broome-Tioga BOCES has prepared me for real-world work and has taught me to take pride in what I am doing."

- Kyle Bowling, 2019 graduate

Call 763-3343

National Center for Construction Education and Research

Carpentry

Program highlights

- Practice personal and construction site safety
- Train on the proper use of hand and power tools
- Learn how to read construction blueprints
- Create carpentry projects with proper construction methods and materials
- Build and renovate residential structures

High school academic credit

This course has received program approval through the New York State Education Department, enabling students to earn one unit of integrated and/or specialized English language arts, math and/or science credit.

Step ahead to college

All career and technical courses have articulation agreements or opportunities for concurrent credits with post-secondary institutions and/or unions.

College choices

These schools, along with many others across the country, offer programs in the carpentry field.

- SUNY Delhi
- SUNY Alfred State
- Johnson College, Pa.

Step ahead to a promising career

Students who successfully complete this program are prepared for the workforce. Here are a few examples of jobs awaiting successful students:

- Cabinet maker
- General carpenter
- Roofing, window and siding installer
- Residential house framer
- Construction material sales
- Construction estimating
- Carpenters and laborers union

