Step ahead!

Get the skills and experience that will put you a step ahead, be it in college or a rewarding career.

Gain real-world experience constructing a Habitat for Humanity home

Study carpentry methods and materials

Learn construction safety and estimating

“Broome-Tioga BOCES has prepared me for real-world work and has taught me to take pride in what I am doing.”

- Kyle Bowling, 2019 graduate

Call 763-3343
Program highlights
- Practice personal and construction site safety
- Train on the proper use of hand and power tools
- Learn how to read construction blueprints
- Create carpentry projects with proper construction methods and materials
- Build and renovate residential structures

Step ahead to college
All career and technical courses have articulation agreements or opportunities for concurrent credits with post-secondary institutions and/or unions.

College choices
These schools, along with many others across the country, offer programs in the carpentry field.
- SUNY Delhi
- SUNY Alfred State
- Johnson College, Pa.

High school academic credit
This course has received program approval through the New York State Education Department, enabling students to earn one unit of integrated English language arts, math and/or science credit.

Step ahead to a promising career
Students who successfully complete this program are prepared for the workforce. Here are a few examples of jobs awaiting successful students:
- Cabinet maker
- General carpenter
- Roofing, window and siding installer
- Residential house framer
- Construction material sales
- Construction estimating
- Carpenters and laborers union

Call 763-3343  www.btboces.org